

ROUND 06: RADIO CÔTE D'AZUR BROADCAST COMMENTARY

Norway's Megane Omalie shifts up and leaves the field in a cloud of black smoke, now completely unchallenged for the lead position, rocketing ahead past Rue de Congrès on the southern side of the Promenade des Anglais. Behind, Sweden and Belgium continue in a tight race for 2nd place with Sweden slowly increasing the gap. Godeschalk Hegkman in his white Bugatti T51 makes a daring pass of Vitez Rychly, the Czech driver, who is also in a T51A. Rychly turns and shakes his fist at the German driver, who seems too intent upon the track ahead to notice. Immediately behind, a knot of cars forms in the across the Promenade from the Hôtel Ruhl, as Finland's Tavho Myrsky tries desperately to break through, cutting right to pass France and nearly making it by Monaco. England daringly pulls up short and is forced to cut across to the outside lane, somehow barely missing a collision with the cars ahead. At the back of the field, the Swiss driver, Petrus de Salvion Bernardus, makes it past Italy, while Spain's Teide Sorolla continues to bide his time at the back, staying close to the pack but not yet making a move to advance. It is clear that Finland will now attempt a breakaway, but will the track be clear enough to truly pull ahead?
